P. Lohn To Attend Dubuque Confab

Miss Persis Lohn, librarian, will attend a meeting of librarians at the University of Dubuque Thursday and Friday. Colleges with similar enrollments from the surrounding area will also be represented.

Taking part in the program Friday morning, Miss Lohn will discuss the topic "Selecting Books for the Reference Collection."

Primary Planning In Progress For Fine Arts Structure

By Cy Walnecott
TRUMPET Staff Writer

With the new Student Memorial union ready to rise from the drawing board to reality, Wartburg has already begun to plan for a Fine Arts building, the next step in its extensive building program.

Taking charge of the planning, still in its rough stages, is a special faculty-elected committee headed by Herb Engelbrecht, business manager. Other members are Prof. August Bastian, sociology; Dr. John Gedewill, mathematics; Dr. Erwin Lemcke, music, and Miss Erna Moehl, English.

At present the committee is contemplating an 80-foot by 65-foot "L" shaped building to be erected on the now vacant lot west of Luther hall.

The two-story building will be designed to house large rehearsal rooms for the college choirs, band and other musical organizations in addition to numerous small individual practice rooms.

"No individual plans have been drawn up yet," stated Mr. Engelbrecht, "but the committee is carefully studying the needs of a fine arts building."

A drive to provide funds for the building is slated to get underway as soon as the present effort for the union is completed.

Martin Plans Study

Raymond Martin, instructor in Greek, has announced that he will leave Wartburg early in July in order to further his studies at Princeton theological seminary, N. J.

Uncertain as to the duration of his enrollment at the noted eastern school, Mr. Martin plans to base his studies on the Old Testament while working towards a degree. He now holds a Th. M. from Princeton.

A.B. Received in '47

Mr. Martin received his A.B. from Wartburg in 1947 and his bachelor of divinity degree from Wartburg seminary in 1951. He joined the faculty of Wartburg college in the summer of 1952 following his study at Princeton.

Besides taking the duties of instructor in Greek while here, Mr. Martin has also served as advisor to Chi Rho, Lutheran student and the chapel committee. He was also elected as advisor for the lower region of the Lutheran Student association.

Stay Here Enjoyed

Noting that he has no immediate plans as to returning to Wartburg, he said, "I have really enjoyed being here. I'll always consider Wartburg my home."

"I hope that someday I may be able to return to Wartburg to serve the student and faculty here at Wartburg," he concluded.

Danforth To Offer $5,000 Gift

A $5,000 grant toward construction of the Memorial Prayer chapel in the proposed student union is expected to be awarded Wartburg early next week by the Danforth foundation of St. Louis, Mo.

Pres. C. H. Becker was in St. Louis on Thursday of last week for a special interview with Louis Danforth, president of the Ralston-Purina company and head of the Danforth foundation. He commented upon his return Monday that he was much encouraged by the interest Mr. Danforth and his company architect took in the project.

Official confirmation of the grant is expected in a letter to Dr. Becker next week.

Event Climax

The grant will climax an extensive fund-raising tour which took Dr. Becker through North and South Dakota, Kansas and Wisconsin.

"I found a great deal of interest in our project," he commented, "and received a large number of gifts for the union."

Spurred on to completion date for the current drive, Dr. Becker replied, "We are quite hopeful that the total project will be paid for by the day of the union dedication."

Plaques Ordered

Dr. Becker also reported that memorial plaques have been ordered for Centennial hall, new women's dorm to be dedicated next fall. The first of the three plaques will contain the names of all donors who gave $1,000 or more toward constructing the building.

The second plaque will bear the names of 104 donors between $500 and $1,000 to the building fund.

A special plaque has been ordered and will be placed in the guest room, which will be furnished in memory of Mr. Paulina Lieske and her mother Bertha Lieske by John L. Liebben of DeSmet, Ohio.

Ruth Adix Chosen WC Board Leader

Ruth Adix, junior from Waterloo, was elected president of the Women's Coordinating board for next year on Intersociety night for women. Tuesday evening. Serving with Miss Adix will be Ann Hoffmann, junior from Cedar Falls, as vice-president.

Secretary-treasurer of the board will be chosen by the individual houses until next fall.

Foege, Schulz Will Be Publications Managers

Miss Foege and Walter Schulz, juniors, recently received approval from the student faculty publications committee to be next year's business managers of the Kaleidoscope and TRUMPET.

Appointed by 54-55 editors subject to approval of the committee, both are eligible for scholarships to be awarded on the basis of grade point ratios in business courses and major fields.

Rabbi Plaut Presents Thought-Provoking Speech

By Frank Dipper
TRUMPET Feature Writer

"Judaism and Christianity: why the subject chosen by Rabbi Walter Plaut of Cedar Rapids for his Thursday-evening convocation address last Thursday.

"I will disagree with you without being disagreeable," averred Rabbi Plaut. "I would like to mean sloughing over or merging differences but bridge them so we understand each other."

3 Differences

Judaism and Christianity differ in three vital areas which originate from the Jewish Jesus and the Christian Christ.

"The three main differences," according to the Rabbi, "are in the difference in concepts of God, the profound differences between free will and determinism, and the interpretation of Judaism.

Jesus Differs

"Despite the differences there are similarities. Although there are many different churches, I believe in a movement and a summit and God is the summit with many paths leading up to Him. I can't tell which is the best path, but your job is to find it," he concluded.

Centennial Hall Reaches Final Stages

Centennial hall is shown as it enters into its final series of development. With exterior and structural work all but completed, electricians, plumbers and carpenters are busily completing all the interior in preparation for the fall dedication of the structure when 218 women will take up residence there.

Casting For 'Wartburg' Set For Wed., Thurs.

Casting for the play "The Wartburg," a history of the German exile written by Wartburg college faculty members and students will be held Wednesday and Thursday, 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the Little theater.

Director Charles Dickson of the speech department stated that "The Wartburg," an all-school production to be held before the national convention of the American Lutheran church, will fall at Bastrop, Neb. All students trying out for the production must therefore be planning to return here next fall.

"The cast is large and I would like as many to try out as possible," stated Mr. Dickson.

Klausler Convo Speaker

The Rev. Alfred P. Klausler, editor of the "Walther League Messenger," will speak at convocation on Thursday at 10 a.m.

A Missouri Lutheran pastor, he is the author of an article entitled "When Racial Tensions Flare" which appeared in the Jan. 7 issue of the Christian Century.

Convo Group Expands 1954-55 Program

By Gretchen Kriesel
TRUMPET Feature Writer

With an enlarged budget and ever-increasing fervor, Wartburg's convo committee has begun formulation of a slate of above-average programs for the school year 1954-55.

Outstanding speakers have been invited to appear on the program next year, according to the Rev. Edwin Schick, chairman of the committee.

Among these is Dr. George Forell of Gustavus Adolphus college, familiar to the Wartburg campus. Dr. Forell made many friends here in 1952 during Spiritual Emphasis week.

Strike Scheduled

One of the most popular college convocation speakers in the country is Dr. Jaroslav Pelikan, professor at Chicago Lutheran seminary. May 19 has been scheduled for Wartburg appearance.

Dr. Jaroslav Jan Pelikan, assistant professor of historical theology at the seminary, belongs to a family that is one of the most widely-known Lutheranly of today. Receiving his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, Pelikan became full professor in the History of Concordia seminary, St. Louis. Dr. Pelikan, who served on the board of advisors to the motion picture "Martin Luther," will speak from his field of historical theology.

Noble Invited To Speak

Also to be invited is Dr. O. Frederick Nolde, Lutheran Theological seminary, Philadelphia. As director of the Commission of Churches in International Affairs, a department of the United Nations, Dr. Nolde was present at the San Francisco and the Bandung conferences.

Other probable speakers are Dr. Chad Walsh, poet in residence at Beloit college, and Prof. Ferdinand Dreissigacker, Olaf college, Northfield, Minn.

"We aim to promote more student responsibility and participation in our convocation program. Students are requested to let the committee know which of this year's convos they would like to have rescheduled," said Mr. Schick.

Represent Each Division

Each division of the curriculum will be represented at least once on the year's program. Especially planned are demonstrations by the science departments.

Student representation on the convocation committee includes the TRUMPET editor, the student body president and vice president, and one member elected from the student body.

"The student representative should be a woman next year," concluded Mr. Schick, "so we can include the feminine point of view in our planning."

Making plans for next-years convocation programs are the Rev. Karl Schmidt, the Rev. Edwin Schick and Frank Sanc. A bigger and better convo program has already been given a good start by the committee, which has already contacted several prominent speakers.

Wartburg Applicant Needed For Choir

Applicants from the Wartburg student body are being sought to take position as committee member of the Waverly Community choir according to Prof Darnauer's present Wartburg member.

Darnauer explained that the selects would act as unofficial representatives of the Wartburg family. Applicants need not be music majors but must have an interest in music and the work of the choir which is presently under the direction of the Messiahs.

Interested students are asked to contact Darnauer immediately.

Campus Radio Station May Go AM Next Year

Wartburg students and faculty may be able to hear KWAR programs over their AM sets next fall, revealed station manager Jon Sjolie, Tuesday.

Sjolie denied that installation of a small AM audio system is being considered for the campus FM station. However, he cautioned that because of changes now being made in Federal Communications Commission laws concerning campus broadcasting, nothing definite may be assumed.

REVIEWING YEAR'S WORK

SBP Biedermann Looks Back

By Walter Schultz
TRUMPET Staff Writer

As another year of student government drifts into the obscurity of history, Student Body President Eric Biedermann took time out this past week to think back on a busy and successful year of Senate leadership.

I didn't realize how much responsibility there was to my job when I was elected," Biedermann mentioned, but I soon found out that a student body president's greatest trial is to represent the whole student body in one person, —and he grew to feel it is to represent them truthfully.

Planning to go to Wartburg seminary in Dubuque, Iowa, Eric felt that the experience received as editor was invaluable and expressed the wish that every student could have a taste of the honor.

'Must Mingle'

He continued, "If I had known the amount of work involved, I would have cut my class schedule more. I lost valuable time later on for the SBP to represent truthfully the opinion of the whole student body. It is necessary that he spend a large part of his time mingling with students.

I feel that the only real way to get the opinions of the student body on any specific issue promptly and bigger campus issues is to stir up an unofficial election as possible," he stressed.

Biedermann felt that he had a good cooperation from the Senate in getting the most accomplished out of the year. When he was asked for a candid word of criticism of parents, it was like playing an LP record at 33 rpm.

Wartburg On JCC

The Senate sponsored a resignation dance, then a member of the student body was elected to represent Wartburg in the Wartburg Junior College of Commerce. Election procedures were changed to proportional balloting. A social activities director was recommended as a salaried addition to the staff, a standard initiation program was set up, and the school work-day carnival was put on a profitable operative program.

Eric Biedermann

ing basis among organizations.

Other major resolutions were tackled, included proposals to have a senior presidency of the cheerleaders and to set up a standard college "Big" Eric concluded.

Future Optimistic

Looking ahead to next year, Biedermann was optimistic. Two years prospects with Tom Loftus in the senate, and the Senate had a lot of enthusiasm and "pep" to start off the year with. Organization and planning for next year's activities is necessary, he added, for many people who had helped make the year a success Biedermann mentioned the janitors who helped make the campus projects a success. Sid Curtis, who capably handled the correspondency of the Senate, the TRUMPET for having given so much publicity, and the Senate for its cooperation, and the Senate personnel and advisers, and the student body as a whole for its support.

"It's been a great pleasure to get acquainted with such a fine group of students," he concluded.

Tues. Panel Exposes Farce

Last Tuesday the group discussion class, under Charles Dickson, presented an enlightening session on Wartburg's class attendance system. In the comparatively few students and faculty members who could muster the energy to walk over to the Little Theater.

Conducted in the form of a panel, the discussion was competently presented and well carried through. Although the various panel members disagreed widely on several points, as well as members of the audience when the question was thrown open to the floor later on, the entire affair left a wholesome feel for the morning.

The discussion centered around Wartburg's "cut" system. Terms were first of all defined and the various systems of other schools briefly pointed out. Then the debate began.

Some liked our present loose and arbitrary system. These were in a decided minority. Some wanted a more stringent setup, even to the point of banning unexcused absences completely. Others felt that cuts should be dealt out more freely or forgotten entirely.

Many divergent views were brought forth and chewed over. The word "responsibility" was tossed back and forth with reckless abandon. Then, after the hot air about had been fired, the meeting was over and nothing, of course, had been settled. It is impossible to settle anything of such magnitude in an hour's time, especially when less than one-tenth of the student body and a bare fraction of the faculty and administration are in attendance.

But one thing is obvious and has been obvious for quite some time: the present system is entirely ineffective and must be changed. As several panel members put it, "The whole thing's a farce."

And it's up to next year's Senate to do something positive in rectifying a farcical situation.

W-C Orchestra Established As Success

By Darrell Alfson
TRUMPET Staff Reviewer

A second year, a second successful year, for the Wartburg-Clarksville symphony orchestra last night established itself as a permanent progress in the musical development of Waverly and the surrounding area in its spring concert last night in the auditorium.

The organization was completely accepted by the audience of night despite dreary and humid weather.

The first section, featuring just the orchestra, was quite softly, the num of brass leading into a singing picture of spring, followed by medium-pace and variation, and finally the powerful the best number of the four—"Adagio" for string orchestra by Corelli.

Conductor Ernest Hagen led C. Robert Larson on stage for the second section, featuring the more attractive aspect to the traditionally instrumental-orchestra. Larson played Mozart with panic, pity and peace, extending from Handel through Richard Strauss and reaching a climax in Prokofieff.

Immediately preceding the intermission were two Negro spirituals by Miss Alice Parker, freely coupled with a sweet contemplativeness, cast a spell which set a delicate mood for the concert.

Following intermission the orchestra presented the heaviest part of the entire program. The second modern selection played by the orchestra, "Concerto for Strings and Oboe, No. 2 in D Minor" by Poulenc, was received with ovation.

The solo duo from Waterloo, Marylynn brown and John Witt, lived up to and passed expectation in their performance, both still remaining in their youthful years.

The final spring concert is over. People have left and remembered. The Wartburg Community Symphony Orchestra has set a voice pointing to a place of permanence established by an avid following.

For 2 Cents I'd . . .

By Jerry Haver

After careful consideration I've compiled a few definitions that apply to Wartburg. Anywhere else they would have entirely different meanings.

Student Senate—a group of people who are elected at the end of each year and function for the next year. Occasionally after a spree of disapproval, but no one listens and soon they are forgotten again.

Carry-on—a required student activity that is scheduled twice a week at 10 a.m. During this hour some students sneak up to their rooms and others sneak downstairs to the snack bar for coffee and sleep.

Various athletic teams—a group of young men who are proclaimed great and heroic gladiators during a winning streak, and considered to have been overpaid and lazy when the reel of the fates turns.

Spring—the basic element responsible for many class cuts and hand-in-hand dates with the opposite sex.

Outfly—a Wartburg holiday when everybody does nothing and continues doing nothing if the rest of the week.

Student body meetings—also a Wartburg holiday where everybody does nothing (usually to excess) and then to do anything, but rarely talked about for the next two weeks, or indeed even the next two minutes.

Mail call—comparable to a difficult play ed course, but no credit is given for it.

Al-school party—a gala affair during which many students sit in their rooms and balance the checkbook and study problems.

The health service—just what the title indicates, a service for those who are healthy.

Conservatives—people the liberals refuse to understand.

Liberals—people the conservatives refuse to understand.

Administration—the governing body that no one understands.

Wartburg—a place that students like to complain about but will defend to the last ditch if an outsider does criticize it.

Footnotes To Faith:

What Is True Christian Fellowship?

By Paul Reyelts
President, LS Council

Fellowship is a term used quite frequently and also quite ambiguously today. The definition below is the word as it is used in several meanings. Each individual interprets it to provides a variation and studying from one extreme to another.

Reyelts

Then there is the term, fellowship, that has evolved into a religious. Each denomination has its own "Holy Spirit" fellowship at the Lord's Supper, fellowship of Christians, and various others, could in itself warrant a thorough study.

The following are not critical analyses, but merely listings on one phase in regard to Christians' actions toward each other, there are certain rights and obligations to be remembered in governing a fellowship.

Sec. 1 Article II, Romans 12 states, though many are one body in Christ and individually members one of another.

We are to be in fellowship with Christ and also in the fellowship with each other. Fellowship is to be more than merely an acquaintanceship. It is a participation, a concerned, active participation when each will and shall sharing in the fellowship by receiving from and giving to the giving and sharing in the fellowship through you and you commissions and acts toward others.

Fellowship must be with many Christians. Individuals are regarded as persons; as ends in themselves, never as means or tools. There is a deepseated interest and concern for the individual in that fellowship.

Christian fellowship? Make it a living, vibrating, active participation.

Luther Favored In Divisional

By Erv Riensche
TRUMPET Sports Writer

Luther is favored to retain its north division track crown this afternoon on the Loras oval in Dubuque, but Wartburg and Loras are considered strong contenders. Wartburg will again meet the mighty Norsemen Thursday at Decorah in a dual meet.

The field events got underway at 10:30 this morning with the running events now in progress. The Norse attack for polee laurels will be led by Karl Ahrens and Art Mueller. Loras' big guns are Dick Richards and Carl Warner. Wartburg brings a balanced track squad with a few weaknesses to discuss. Boersa Vista will present Dick Tuttle as its chief threat in the Upper Iowa will have to fight for one point.

Ahrens Breaks Record

Ahrens of Luther broke the mile record at the Viking Olympics and should be continue in his prime, will be a major threat in the distances. Piper is prominent in the shot put and discus events with Alcoa with Richards and Warner of Loras, they will probably be battling for individual stars and meet.

According to Knight coach Ax Bundgaard, BV and UDU will add Wartburg, since the Knights lack the depth boasted by Loras and Luther. The former will take many points that would otherwise fall to the Norsemen and the Dutchmen.

Tryout in Broad Jump

Wartburg will enter a majority of its points with Joe Troyer in the broad jump. Chuck Boie in the high jump, Dennis Peterson in the javelin throw, Bob Adix in the high jump. Duane Peterson in the distances, Marshall in the middle distances, Beckley in the shot put, and the mile relay team.

In the 120 yard scheduled with Luther Tuesday, the Norsemen are again heavily favored. Wartburg, sporting one of the best mile relay teams in the conference, should take that event, along with the broad jump, javelin throw and shorter distances.

Tracksters Take Second

Knight tracksters notched second in a dual meet with Upper Iowa and St. Ambrose Tuesday in Dubuque, as the Knights were outpointed by points to Wartburg's 64 and Upper Iowa's 49.

The 220 hurdle John Richard grabbed second, missing first place points, Beckley drew down both the high and low hurdle events, with Marshall in the former.

Duane Peterson of Wartburg garnered 10 points in the 880 as Knights as he raced to firsts in the half and gained the anchor lap second to the mile relay team. His mile effort was three seconds shy of a record.

Miler Pete Peterson 'Athlete-Of-Month'

By Ron Ratliff
TRUMPET Sports Writer

Distance man Duane Peterson became the first sprinter on the Wartburg track team to be named the Athlete-of-the-Month for the month of May. Peterson is the hero of his track triumphs during the past month.

I am happy and grateful to have been selected as May athlete," remarked Pete as he is commonly known around campus, "and hope I can live up to the standards set by the past."

Coming from Olisco, Minn., Pete ran the first appearance on the Wartburg oval during his sophomore year. He has been a regular track monogram when a junior, placing fourth in the conference mile run.

Specializing in the mile event, Pete has made his appearances in the distance competition this year, running three of them and placing second in the other. In the latter Pete copped the half-mile event at the Viking Olympics.

Track mentor Ax Bundgaard has high hopes for Peterson's improvement this year as he has had some fine workouts and could break the school record in the mile. A 2:22.2, set by Ken Hoffman in 1951, is the present record in the mile. Pete's fastest mile this year has been 4:34 and he has an excellent shot to break set a new standard.

Bundgaard has no other opinion for the year—to defeat Luther's Karl Ahrens in the conference meet. To date Pete has never been beaten by the conference Ahrens' long strides in the mile.

Teemen Whip Dubuque; Mercer High With 72

Wartburg generalmen blanked a weak Dubuque university golf squad 18-0 on the Hillcrest course yesterday afternoon. Knight Jim Mercer copped medalist honors with a 72, two under par.

Coach Ax Bundgaard lets Ax Knight linksmen to Luther for a return match. The locals defeated the latter, 11½-3½, in a previous meet on the home course.

Wednesday afternoon Knight golfers were beaten on the fairways of Iowa State Teachers college 15½-2½ by the unyielding Tutor clubwielders for the second time this season. Bob Bird, Knight, gained medalist honors by firing a 76, par for the course.

Mercer (W) defeated Bob Bird (W), 3 and 2.

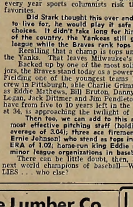
Women Host Playday As 3 Schools Participate

Women's Athletic association of Wartburg will play host Saturday to Grinnell, Luther and Teachers college in the conference-type playday, with about 30 women expected. Tennis, golf and softball are the day's competition.

It looks like a good turnout, as each team defeated the round-robin sport by Luther Wednesday night in their home softball. Sally Johnson's Luther softballers will be expected to rest easy in a meeting Wednesday night at Brewster park.

Petersen (foreground)



With the campus nine finding the going rough, suppose we sit back and glance at the major leagues. It seems that about this time every year baseball columnists rise their necks from the typewriter and

Ted Shank thought this over and decided that, having too much to love for, he would play it safe and write about the people's choice. It didn't ride long for him to discover that in this part of the country the Yankees still gain the nod in the American league while the Braves stand for the National.

Reviling this opinion as topsy and beaten, we can easily dismiss the Yanks. That leaves Milwaukee and Brooklyn. The Dodgers, backed by one of the most solid National leagues in the major, the Braves stand today as a powerful contender for the pennant. Pitching one of the greatest in baseball, and the best hitting crew in Pittsburgh, Skip Charlie Grimm can boast of such greats as Eddie Mathews, Bill Bruton, Danny Cornell, Joe Adcock, Johnny Logan, Jack Dittmer and Jim Pendleton, all of whom are under 30 and have from five to 10 years left in the game. Only veteran Andy Pafko, at 34, is approaching the twilight of his career.

There now, we can add to this evidence the National league's most effective pitching staff (holding down a team earned run average of 3.04). Three ace firemen (Dave Jolly, Ray Crone and Ernie Johnson) who stand a rope in the misers with a sensational ERA of 1.09; Spahn-ex king Eddie Mathews, and one of the best minor league organizations in baseball.

There you have it, little Ted. It is to whom Stark picks as the best world champions of baseball—Why, those up-and-coming PHILLIES, who else!

Frosh Initiation On Trial Next Fall With Beem, Bichel Leading Program

By Cy Welmscott
TRUMPET Staff Writer

"Do or Die" will be the theme of next fall's freshman initiation," said sophomore president elect John Beem as he released initiation plans this week. The program is going to apply more to the upperclassmen than to the freshmen.

Beem, who with Chuck Bichel will take charge of the annual "hazing of the frosh," went on to explain that the initiation this fall will be conducted on a trial basis and that if it is not executed properly the practice will be abolished.

"It is our purpose," said Beem, "to create a feeling of unity among the freshmen, to make them feel at home on campus and to relieve some of the tensions of being away from home in a new and strange environment."

"We definitely want to eliminate practices that would be dangerous to those health, both physical the campus or single out individuals for treatment," he added.

The new initiation plans follow the same broad outline that has been used in previous years. However, several changes have been made in that outline.

Registration of the freshman initiation will formally open with the orientation meeting. All new students will be given the opportunity to purchase beanies and be invited to wear them at proper attitudes for an undisclosed period of time.

New features added this year will include organization of the frosh into groups of 20 with an upperclassman leader for each group. These groups, which are to meet once a week, will be asked to furnish entertainment for weekend mixers.

Target was to determine the duration beanies must be worn, will be held between the frosh and sophs.

Other features that are planned include Kangaroo Kort, an evening devoted to the initiation of the frosh by the sophs, and sound physical conditioning, shoeshine parties, a full day of initiation, a presentation of the Loyalty and a time, reserved especially for the upperclassmen. Fight songs and escapades.

During evening meals in the cafeteria, freshmen must pay their own way. Seniors may buy them their preference in line formation by offering to pay for their meal, and in every way the freshmen may be dominated during the course of the meals. Penalty for not paying the bill will be determined as "health duty."

Complete plans for the program will be revealed at a special freshman class meeting in the Little Theater at 7:15 Monday.

"Remember," Beem admonished, "initiation is going to be an trial period, so let's do everything we can to make it a success."
